Mr. Allah, DOC 950376
Stafford Creek Corrections Center, IMU
191 Constantine Way
Aberdeen, WA 98520

Dear Mr. Allah:

I have been asked to respond to your correspondence addressed to Department of Corrections (DOC) Secretary Harold Clarke. In your letter you state that you are being held unlawfully at Stafford Creek Corrections Center (SCCC), that DOC has no warrant of commitment for "Allah," and that your case was dismissed on September 3, 2001.

Department records indicate you are not serving time on case 201138836 which you indicate was dismissed. You are currently serving time on three warrants of commitment: King County Cause No.'s 011091766, 011108073 and 021020476.

My staff have confirmed that you are currently incarcerated under the name Allah. Your records indicate that you were previously known as Edwin Coston. Your Judgment and Sentence under which you are currently incarcerated lists Allah AKA Edwin Randal Coston (AKA: also known as). Your three warrants of commitment also list your name Allah AKA Edwin Randal Coston.

In your letter you also enclose a "Private Oath of Office – Security Agreement" and an "Affidavit of Legal Notice and Demand." Secretary Clarke declines to sign your private security agreement. I am unable to determine what action/response you are seeking by your "Affidavit of Legal Notice and Demand."

Your dispute related to what you term an "invalid" search warrant is not under the jurisdiction of the DOC and must be addressed in the appropriate venue. If you have additional questions related to your incarceration records, I suggest you contact records staff at SCCC.

Sincerely,

Eldon Vail, Deputy Secretary
Prisons Division

(FRMT) Allah has not Completed any programming assigned by classification and has not received any infractions or BOE's while housed at MCC-IMU. Allah is respectful towards staff and other individuals housed on the Unit. Allah was sent to MCC-IMU for the progression pod but had refused to be housed on the progression pod with multiple attempts. Allah has stated multiple times that DOC has the wrong guy. Allah recently told me that he would go to general population so he could have more time to work on his court case. Recommendation promote to Close custody and transfer to facility appropriate.
